The 33rd International Conference on Geoinformatics, July 19-22, 2026, Singapore

(Website: <https://geoinformatics2026.github.io/>)

The GIS Unit, Department of Geography, National University of Singapore, welcomes you to the 33rd International Conference on Geoinformatics, which will be held between 19-22 July 2026, at University Town (UTown), NUS. The conference is held annually at different cities across the world. As the organizers of the conference, we welcome participants to Singapore in 2026 for this informative and wonderful event!

The main theme of 2026 Conference on Geoinformatics is Geo-innovations for a sustainable and resilient society. Under this broad umbrella, the conference aims to engage dialogues between researchers and practitioners to advance theoretical, methodological, and applied aspects of geographic information science and systems that transform our living environment to be more sustainable and more resilient. Other presentations regarding cutting-edge research on or related to broadly defined geographic information sciences, technologies, and applications, are also welcome, as always.

We welcome sponsorship from institutions and companies. To discuss further the following sponsorship opportunities, please email cpgis2026@nus.edu.sg
